

NCACC 2018 - SAN DIEGO, CA

Whether you want to visit our theme parks, museums, try horseback riding on the beach, or book a half-day cruise to watch the annual blue whale migration, America's Finest City has something for everyone.

A listing of suggested activities has been compiled for your convenience. Follow the links and see what works best as you plan your San Diego experience! Please note, there are three family activity days planned during the conference (highlighted in red in the list below).

If you have any additional questions regarding activities, please feel free to contact Brandon Henson at (619) 744-0763 or brandon.henson@jud.ca.gov
