Janet Johnson Confirmed to Office of Treasurer of the National Conference of Appellate Court Clerks

Janet Johnson, Clerk of Court for the Arizona Supreme Court, was confirmed by the Executive Committee to the office of Treasurer of the National Conference of Appellate Court Clerks.

Ms. Johnson was appointed the Clerk of the Arizona Supreme Court on May 10, 2012. Previously she served as the Director of the Court Services Division of the Arizona Administrative Office of the Courts from June 2000 to June 2012. Prior to moving to Arizona, she served as the Assistant Director of the Court Services Division at the Missouri Administrative Office of the Courts. Ms. Johnson holds a master's degree in Social Work with an emphasis in planning and administration and is a Fellow of the Institute of Court Management.

NCACC was established in 1973 with the objectives of improving the skills and knowledge of its members, promoting effective court administration, providing a forum for the exchange of ideas, and maintaining facilities for the dissemination of information concerning appellate court operations. Its membership is comprised of state, federal, and military appellate and Supreme Court clerks from the United States, District of Columbia, territories and possessions of the United States, and tribal appellate courts.
