

Deana Williamson Confirmed to Executive Committee

Deana Williamson, Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin, Texas has been confirmed to the Executive Committee of the National Conference of Appellate Court Clerks (NCACC).

Deana was appointed as Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals in October 2017. She has been employed with the Court since July 2012 and has served as Clerk Pro Tempore, Chief Deputy Clerk, and Deputy Clerk.

In May 2010, Deana received her BBA with a double degree in Marketing and Human Resources from Baylor University, Waco, Texas. In 2008, she studied abroad in England.

Even though she has attended the NCACC conferences since she was a child, Deana joined as an official member in 2012. Since then, she has served as the Chair of the Convention Assistance Committee and the Chair of the Awards, Resolutions and Memorials Committee, as well as serving on several other committees.

NCACC was established in 1973 with the objectives of improving the skills and knowledge of its members, promoting effective court administration, providing a forum for the exchange of ideas, and maintaining facilities for the dissemination of information concerning appellate court operations. Its membership is comprised of state, federal, and military appellate and Supreme Court clerks from the United States, District of Columbia, territories and possessions of the United States, and tribal appellate courts.
